

ATKIN FAMILY TREE

1. John Atkin m. Emma

1.1 John William Atkin ~ 20 May 1860 Snelland, Lincoln

1. John Atkin m. Francis

1.2 William Atkin ~ 7 April 1861 Frampton, Lincoln

The 1881 United Kingdom Census lists the following household:

John William ATKIN, Head of Household, aged 22 years (b. 1859) born Gipple, Lincoln, England, a Farmer of 263 Acres Employing 3 Labourers & 2 Boys
Jessie ATKIN, his Wife, aged 20 years, born Theddlethorpe, Lincoln, England
William ATKIN, his brother, aged 20 years, born Gipple, Lincoln, England, a farmer 130 Acres employing 2 Labourers & 2 Boys
Mary CRASHLEY, his Mother-in-Law, aged 64 years (bc. 1817) born Theddlethorpe, Lincoln, England [occupation recorded as "Annuitant"]
Emma SEARSON, a general domestic servant aged 16 years, born Ancaster, Lincoln, England
John MELLADY, a groom and farm servant, aged 15 years, born Welby, Lincoln, England
John MOORE, a farm servant indoor, aged 15 years, born Gipple, Lincoln, England
George TOULSON, a farm servant indoor, aged 15 years born Gipple, Lincoln, England

The family resided at Gipple Farm, Syston, Lincoln, England

The 1881 United Kingdom Census lists the following household :

Surrey County School, Cranleigh, Surrey, the headmaster George Harling Baylis. Amongst his pupils was one, Robert Edward Twidale, aged 16 years (b. 1865) born Lincoln.

1.1.1 Robert Twidale (Twidell / Twydale) ATKIN (so. John William Atkin - of Gipple Farm, Syston, Lincs., yeoman - and Jessie CRASHLEY) b 13 February 1885 ~ 20 November 1885 d 30 May 1963 m. 18 April 1911¹
Annie Blodwen SCOTTON b 13 November 1885/1886 d 1 January 1977

Annie, "Bobby" and Aubrey Atkin

¹ This is gleaned from 3 telegrams sent and delivered congratulating the couple on their Golden Wedding Anniversary 18 April 1961

1.1.1.1 Robert George Aubrey ("Aubrey") Atkin (unmarried) b 19 January 1915 ~ 21 March 1915 d 1990

TROOPER Robert George Aubrey ("Aubrey") ATKIN
(1915 - 1990)

Born of Annie Blodwen neé Scotton (1885-1977) and Robert Twydale Atkin (1885-1963) "Aubrey" Atkin, he was educated at St. Joseph's College ("Marists Brothers"), Rondebosch (1924-1927) and at South African College High School (1931-1933). After he gained his matriculation, he worked for Kodak (SA) Ltd from August 1934 until October 1940 as "cine processing operator". After the WW II, he joined the South African Railways, working there as a clerk until retirement. He was unmarried.

New Band Stand, Jephson Mill Gardens, Leamington Spa
"Leaf Leam" Series, Tunnicliff & Son, Leamington Spa : 1908

Stratford Lodge, Lemington Spa

Jessie Atkin née CRASHLEY

John William and Jessie Atkin in their later years

Annie and Robert Twidale Atkin

Aubrey and Annie Atkin

REFERENCES:

1. South African Archives Repository, Cape Town
2. Family Archival Records, Church of the Latter Day Saints, Utah
3. S C Foote. Badges of the Pretoria Regiment and Pretoria Highlanders. Commando 1967 (10), 25

Saturday, 26 November 2005

© 2008. Dr R M Pelteret. All rights reserved. www.pelteret.co.za