Good evening from Cape Town.

Thank you so much for writing and for the document you attached. It was very kind of you.

Yours is a very beautiful village, and I am delighted to be very distantly associated with it. We visit Zurich each year. Perhaps when we are in Europe, my wife, Denise, and I shall have the opportunity to visit Grancey le Chateau.

I attach to this e-mail for your possible interest, the French Pelteret / Peltret Family tree as I know it. My French forebear, a wealthy man according to his will, moved to London; and from there his grandson, an impoverished and abandoned street child, was transported to Cape Town as a boy servant to a lawyer. And here I am, 5 generations later.

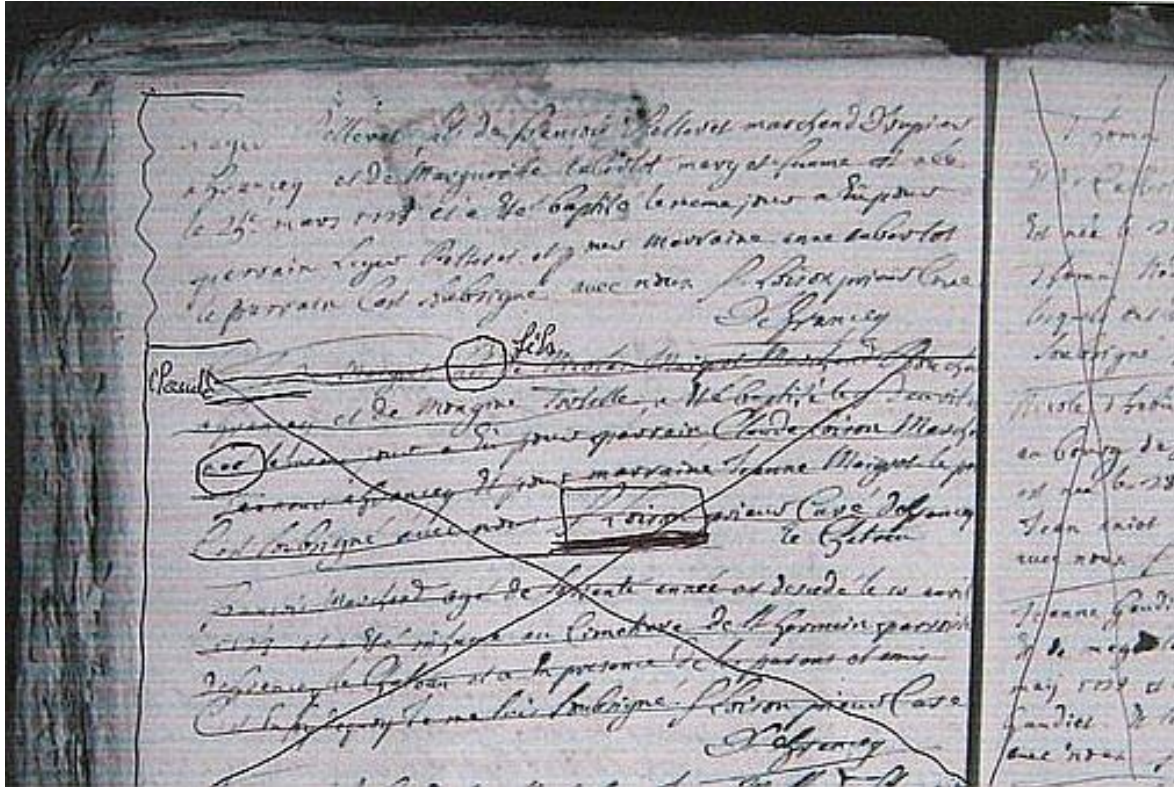

Warmest regards and my thanks once again for your kindness.
